

---

---

The Rebirth of California Fish & Game Code Section 5937: Water for Fish

Karrigan S. Börk†*, Joseph F. Krovoza<sup>**</sup>, Jacob V. Katz<sup>***</sup>, and Peter B.
Moyle<sup>****</sup>

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION .....	811
I. HISTORY OF THE MINIMUM FLOW REQUIREMENT .....	817
A. Early History of the Minimum Flow Requirement: 1852         to 1917 .....	817
B. Early Implementation and Enforcement of the Minimum         Flow Requirement .....	824
II. PRIMARY IMPEDIMENTS TO IMPLEMENTATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE MINIMUM FLOW REQUIREMENT .....	826
A. California's Water Law .....	828
1. Limits on Water Use: Riparians, Reasonableness, and the Constitutional Amendment.....	829
2. Acquisition of Water Rights .....	832
B. Early Water Board Hearings .....	833
C. Growing Federal Concerns .....	838

---

† Copyright © 2012 Karrigan S. Börk, Joseph F. Krovoza, Jacob V. Katz, and Peter B. Moyle.

* J.D., Stanford Law School (2009); Ph.D in Ecology, UC Davis (2011). I would like to thank Dave Owen, Richard Roos-Collins and Brian Gray for their comments on earlier drafts of this article. I would also like to thank my family for their support throughout the writing process.

<sup>**</sup> J.D., UC Davis School of Law. Mayor of Davis, California; Senior Director for Development for the UC Davis Energy Efficiency Center and Institute of Transportation Studies.

<sup>***</sup> Ph.D. candidate in Ecology, UC Davis Center for Watershed Sciences & Department of Wildlife, Fisheries and Conservation Biology.

<sup>****</sup> Associate Director, UC Davis Center for Watershed Sciences. Professor of fish biology, Department of Wildlife, Fish, and Conservation Biology, UC Davis.